The above rules, established Dr. J. C. There is nothing of so great portance to the sick as to ow where to find a physi- n whose skill and humanity ve assurance of proper and licate treatment. The Doc- r would respectfully call the ention of those of both sexes o are suffering or in trouble the invariable success that s marked the career of the stitute in the seventeen years its existence.

It is unnecessary in this connection to enumerate all the mplaints treated at the Institute, but the Doctor feels it duty to call especial attention to that terrible scourge, SEMINAL WEAKNESS, that is sapping with its insidiousness the very life of its [illegible] in the treatment and of which the Institute has ned so enviable a reputa-

[DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.]

DATES TO MAY 2.

Congressional.

WASHINGTON, May 1.—On retiring from the Senate the House took up the resolution offered by Brooks, relative to signing the Alta Vela letter by the managers of the impeachment case. The debate thereupon was lengthy and very personal, and was carried on by Logan, Butler, Brooks and others.

Butler charged Brooks with calling him a gold robber. Brooks acknowledged this and claimed that his exposures had caused Butler to surrender the gold he had seized from citizens of New York at New Orleans. Butler alluded to Brooks' suit with Clark to settle the business growing out of the ownership of the New York Express. Finally the House tabled Brooks' resolution—ayes 56, noes 26.

WASHINGTON, May 2.—In the House, after the return from the Senate Chamber, Donnelly rose to a personal explanation. He had a letter read signed by E. B. Washburne, which was published in a Minnesota paper reflecting on Donnelly's political record and actions in Congress. He then proceeded to make a violent personal attack on Washburne, and charged him with being an office begger, and of a family of office beggers, every member of which was born into the world with the letters M. C. franked on the broadest part of his body. The Speaker called Donnelly to order twice, but the House allowed him to proceed. He concluded his speech by employing the most bitter epithets against Washburne.

The Speaker, with severity in his tones, stated to Donnelly that his remarks were not honorable to the House, and that although the House tolerated them, the chair could not consent that they should go on record except with his protest.

Donnelly begged pardon of the House, but said the House would acknowledge that no member had met so vile an assault as he.

Washburne said: "During my entire term of service in this House I never asked leave to make a personal explanation and never expect to. The party from Minnesota has had a letter read to the House and it has gone on the record. Every assertion made in that record is true, and whoever says it is not true states what is false. If under any combination of circumstances I were called on to make a personal explanation in reply to a member, it would not be to a member who had committed a crime. It would not be to a member who had run away. It would not be to a member who had changed his name. It would not be to a member whose whole record in this House has teemed with corruption and crime."

The Speaker remarked to Washburne that his remarks were unparliamentary.

Washburne "was sorry that the Chair supposed him out of order. I repeat, if I were called upon to make a personal explanation, I should make it to a member not covered with crime and infamy, whose record was stained with every fraud,—whiskey and other frauds, with a man who has proved false alike to his friends, his country, his constituents, politics, religion and his God."

Windom gave notice that he should offer a resolution of censure on Washburne.

The House then adjourned.

Impeachment.

WASHINGTON, May 2.—In the Senate, Stanbery resumed his argument. He held that Stanton had not been removed, and that the Tenure of Office law contains no provision forbidding an attempt to cause removal. That the President had a right to construe the law for himself, and that at most he could only be held responsible for error in his construction. Stanbery argued these points at length, reading from Jefferson, Jackson and Van Buren to sustain his view. He proceeded to consider the conspiracy articles, arguing that not a word of proof had been advanced in their support. The Emory article has no substance or foundation. The tenth article is, he said, a violation of the right of free speech, valued by our people as a jewel beyond price and expressly protected by the first article of the Constitution. The eleventh article was more definite. The allegation was unsustained by proof and already sufficiently answered.

Stanbery then denied that any injury had been caused to any individual officer of the Government. No public interest has suffered by the action of the President. He continued, mentioning that the order for the removal of Stanton was signed by the President in exercise of his undoubted power sanctioned by the Constitution and endorsed by every member of the Presidential office. He then said: "How can you punish him for following in good faith that oath he has been compelled to take to preserve, protect and defend the Constitution of the United States? Nothing is plainer than the duty of the Executive to resist the encroachments of the Legislative Department. Whenever a President is deliberately of the opinion that an act of Congress calls upon him to exercise the power given him by the Constitution, he violates that Constitution if he favors it. Again, whenever he is called upon to execute a law which deprives him of his constitutional power, he violates the Constitution as well by executing it. A great trust is committed to his hands, sanctified by a solemn oath, and he cannot surrender the one or violate the other. The language of the Constitution, said Stanbery, is too plain to be misunderstood. The President is to be impeached only on conviction of treason, bribery or other high crimes or misdemeanors. Besides the two enumerated crimes, treason and bribery, there is allusion to other high crimes and misdemeanors. And what sort of crimes and misdemeanors? Why such as are assimilated to those enumerated. Look through all the correlative provisions of the Constitution on the subject, examine the proceedings of the Convention and see how studiously they rejected all impeachment for misbehavior in office, and how steadily they adhered to the requisition that nothing but a high crime or misdemeanor should suffice. Was there ever a more abortive attempt to make a case for impeachment of the President under the Constitution? There never was any real life in it. Long since, its slow vitality vanished, and now it lies bereft of life, a shapeless mass that gives no sign."

Stanbery contended that there was no violation of law in the ad interim appointment of General Thomas, and concluded his remarks with an eloquent appeal to the Senate for the President. His closing words were as follows: "But if, Senators—as I cannot believe, but as has been boldly said with almost official sanction—your votes have been canvassed and the doom of the President is sealed, then let not that judgment be pronounced in this Senate Chamber;—not here where our Camillus, in the hour of great peril, single-handed, met and baffled his country's enemies. Not here where he stood faithful among the faithless, not here where he fought the good fight for Union and the Constitution, not in this Chamber where the walls still echo with his clarion voice that in the day of our greatest danger created hope and comfort to many desponding hearts, strong as an army with banners. No, not here! Seek out rather the darkest and gloomiest chamber in the subterranean chambers of this capitol, where the cheerful light of day never enters, and there erect an altar and immolate the victim."

The latter portion of Stanbery's speech was read by W. F. Pedrick, who assisted the counsel during the trial. Stanbery himself concluded the peroration, concluding ten minutes after three, when the Court adjourned.

The Senate then took up the House amendment to the Naval Appropriation bill, which was non concurred in, and a committee of conference ordered. Adjourned.

Outrages on American Citizens.

Refusing this, they were flogged by the felons, by order of the jailor, before the Alcalde, and fined and compelled to pay for the return of their watches and money. No apology or redress has been offered.

Another "Herald" Hoax.

Report on Mineral Resources.

WASHINGTON, May 3.—James W. Taylor, Commissioner for the collection of the statistics of gold and silver mining, sent to the House yesterday by the Secretary of the Treasury, gives a general review of mining operations in 1867. Among the topics of prominence are the probabilities of increasing water supply on the western plains by means of artesian wells. The recent discoveries of coal along the eastern base of the Rocky mountains and the most practicable means of reducing oppressive rates of transportation west of the Rocky Mountains. This last discussion brings forward the necessity of a National railroad system through the Northern and Southern as well as the Central tier of the Western States and territories.

LONDON, May 3.—It is said to-day, that Disraeli tendered his resignation yesterday, but it was not accepted.

BY ATLANTIC CABLE.

LONDON, May 1.—The cabinet crisis monopolizes public attention. It is thought if the measures which are in effect approved by both parties are not opposed by the Liberals, the present cabinet will not resign or dissolve Parliament until an appeal can be made to a new constituency.

The Times to-day editorially recommends this course.

The journals all comment on the vote of Gladstone's resolution.

The Times says: No one can deny the immense significance of the event. Since the motion to go into committee the Tories have gained three seats in the House of Commons, yet the 60 majority has grown to 64. Dissolution is talked of merely to frighten the members.

The Herald says: The House of Commons by a vote, the importance of which cannot be denied, affirms that it is just that the Church should be disestablished, but the House does not speak the voice of the country as the late elections show.

The Daily News says: It is satisfactory to find that the Premier declines any design of advising the Queen to act against the vote of the House of Commons. His duty is not to dissolve Parliament or to resign, but to aid the progress of its resolves.

The Standard deprecates a vote as a want of confidence or compelling dissolution, but fears the Liberals intend to pursue that course.

LONDON, May 1—Evening.—The belief has become general that after the passage of the Reform bill for Ireland and Scotland, the Ministry will dissolve Parliament and appeal to the people on the Irish Church question.

The Globe in an editorial article confirms this opinion.

DUBLIN, May 1.—Geo. Francis Train was before the bankruptcy court to-day. In the absence of the plaintiff, McHenry, the case was postponed. Train continues to denounce the proceedings as political and the prosecution as prompted by the British authorities.

CORK, May 1.—By an order from the Lord Lieutenant, E. Mahony, Fenian head centre and several other Fenians, have been released from custody.

NEW YORK, May 2.—The Herald's special has news from Trieste via London papers received from Athens, filled with war rumors from Candia. They report that a battle took place on the 14th of April between the Cretans and the Turks which lasted all day. The battle field was near Apocorona. The insurgents claim the victory. They also claim victories in other conflicts reported to have taken place on several other occasions. The Turks are said to have committed great outrages. The steamers still ply between the mainland and the island, carrying ammunition and provisions to the heroic Cretans.

Between two P. M. on Saturday and two P. M. this day, 72 persons have been registered as seeking employment at the California Labor and Employment Exchange, of which 71 were sent to employers. Most of them were engaged for the railroad companies and by farmers for the interior. The agent of the Central Pacific Railroad announced at the Labor Exchange, this morning, that the Company was compelled to make a new arrangement with laborers sent out on the line. Henceforth they will receive $30 instead of $28 per month, but will have to pay their fare, three dollar, to the ground. The Company are compelled to adopt this plan to protect themselves against imposition by laborers who have been conveyed to the interior at the Company's expense, but a little over one half report themselves for work.

Progress of the Pacific Railroad.

RENO, May 4.—The track and telegraph was laid to this place at 12 M. to-day, making 45 miles of track in operation east of the Sierras. This place having been selected by the Railroad Company as the permanent location of the Virginia City junction, the construction of the depot buildings will commence immediately. Passengers and freight will be landed here to-morrow. The town site is unsurpassed, being at Lake's crossing of the Truckee, and at the head of a seven mile tangent. The sale of town lots takes place Saturday, May 9th. Owing to the difficulty of transporting material from Cisco, Cal., Trainor has at present but a small force on construction. After the connection is made across the summit, iron will be laid at a rate of speed unparalleled in the history of railroads.

Indian Difficulties.

UNIONVILLE, May 4.—On the 24th ult. the Indians stole six horses in Paradise Valley. The next morning they were followed by a squad of soldiers from Camp Scott. The soldiers came upon two Indians driving the horses, and thinking there were no more, charged on them, but when within about fifty yards of them, were fired upon by fifteen others who were concealed in the rocks. Lieut. Hunter and two others were severely wounded. One of the latter has since died. On the morning of the 17th inst. Lieut. Laferty, with seventeen men from Camp Scott, started in pursuit of the Indians. The Indians are headed by Big Foot.

The New York Tribune says: "The Turkish Government once more declares the Cretan insurrection to be at an end. Similar dispatches in almost identical terms, have been published at least a dozen times before, and every time been found to be either gross exaggerations or pure inventions. The war in Crete, it is true, has for a long time been nothing more than a guerrilla warfare, but the last advices from our own correspondent, as well as from other trustworthy sources, clearly show that the rule of the Sultan is not yet re-established. The readiness of the Cretan Christians to shake off the Turkish yoke is at all events as great and as universal as ever."

General Longstreet says that when a man talks about a new war be sure he did not fight in the last one.

Oregon Politics.

[From the Jacksonville Sentinel, May 2d.]

The excitement that has raged here some time has subsided somewhat. The Democracy have held their Convention and put a ticket in the field, which will not, by any means, command the full vote of that party. Prominent Democrats are not only murmuring, but openly express their contempt and hostility to it, and declare that they cannot support it. Our German citizens, who act with the Democratic party, consider themselves sold out, they say they were used in the Convention as tools to defeat German citizens, whose good standing in the community, and in the Democratic party, should have insured them a place on the ticket, and they very naturally have [illegible] to the conclusion that Jackson County Democracy only wants to use them as voters, but does not intend that any German shall hold an office.

The Germans themselves who were in the Convention best know how the ticket was made up, without any German citizen on it; and they are not slow to avow their dissatisfaction. Many members of the party say that fraud has been practiced in the precinct meetings, and that the ticket is not acceptable to the mass of the Democracy. The rank and file have had it made plain that the howl about "time-honored principles" and friendship for the poor man, is all gammon; and that none but the wire-workers can hold an office as long as the people will stand it. The probability is that the people in this county are sick and tired of political trickery, and will take the privilege of voting for men that they like—once in their lives.

The following is the Democratic ticket for the Legislature: W. J. Plymale, Thomas Smith and J. L. Loudon; Sheriff, T. G. R[illegible]; Clerk, W. H. S. Hyde; Treasurer, D. Linn; Assessor, J. Hanna; School Supt., T. H. B. Shipley; Coroner, E. H. Greenman; County Commissioners, — Childers and F. Heber.

[From the Mountaineer, May 2.]

On last Wednesday evening, according to previous notice, Col. N. H. Gates made a speech to a very large number of the voters of Wasco county on the causes which produced the split in the Democratic party in Wasco, and the results which are sure to come from it. He clearly showed that it was the result of base frauds practised and perpetrated in the Democratic primaries, by spurious and illegal voting, and thereby [illegible] ing delegates to the County Convention who were not the exponents of Democratic principles and who were the means of thwarting the will of a majority of the Democrats of this county. That the so called Democratic ticket was forced [illegible] the people by a system of "thimble-rigging," gotten up and carried into execution by three or four political hucksters and turn-coats, who [illegible] been bobbing about from one party to the [illegible] for the last eight years, and whose motto is to rule or ruin. This being true, he maintained that no Democrat was bound by the nominations, that there is just as much Democracy in one ticket as in the other, that he should support the "People's ticket and thereby discountenance by his individual actions any attempt to defeat the will of the people [illegible], and for the further reason, that the candidates on the People's ticket for various county offices, are in every way superior to those nominated on the so-called Democratic ticket. That this was the only course left for all true Democrats to pursue in order to preserve the Democratic party from demoralization and ruin. And in our opinion he made a clear statement of the case, and during the progress of his speech he made it very warm for those fellows who brought about this disaffection, showing that while they co-operated with the Union party they were constantly trying to produce the same results, which they have now produced in the Democratic party.

"Barkis," the Salem correspondent of the Mountaineer furnishes the leading "points" of Nesmith's recent speech at Salem, as follows:

I did not get in in time to hear his opening remarks, but as it was, heard enough to satisfy the cravings of ordinary mortals, and will sum it up in regular order:

1. Andrew Johnson is a great man.
2. So is the nigger.
3. Hon. Mr. Nesmith was a pretty good Union man himself.
4. Wendell Phillips is the greatest man in the United States as he was the political bar[illegible] which Mr. N. used to consult.
5. Ben. Wade and all them other fellows are great scoundrels.
6. Andy Johnson is a martyr to the [illegible] of universal liberty.
7. Hon. J. W. suffers because Andy does.
8. Hon. Williams, of Oregon, is a bad egg.
9. The seceding Senators and Representatives were d—d bad eggs.
10. Hon. J. W. and Andy are good eggs.
11. Mr. Lincoln understood reconstruction. So does Andy. So also does the Hon. N.
12. None of those other Congressional [illegible] understand it.
13. The nigger.
14. The splay-foot, long-heeled, shanked d—d nigger in the District of Columbia.
15. The suffering whites ground down by the nigger, d—d him.
16. The Jews crucified Christ in preference to Barrabas, the thief—even as the Radicals are about to crucify Andy in preference to Jeff.
17. The infernal nigger.
18. Two lines from Pope.
19. Two lines from Shakspeare.
20. Benediction with twenty lines of poetry.

The subject which most occupies English attention is the Irish question, and the discussion of it has received a fresh impetus from the appearance of two pamphlets—one by Lord Russell and the other by John Stuart Mill. Lord Russell proposes the division of the whole of the property of the Irish Church establishment—about $100,000,000—amongst all the sects, Catholics included, in proportion to their population; that is, to [illegible] them all, instead of endowing only one; to "introduce the practice of giving long leases," whatever that may mean, and to give the tenants a legal title to compensation for improvements. The introduction of long leases [illegible], however, be effected without the very interference with "the rights of property" which Lord Russell earnestly deprecates, because landlords will not grant them unless they are forced to do so by law; and if they are forced to do so by law the very principle on which Mr. Mill bases his proposed [illegible] of tenure will be conceded. At present leases of any length whatever have nearly disappeared in Ireland. Formerly they were common, but the rule now is tenancy at will. Lord Russell [illegible] some confessions which are almost a justification of Fenianism; they are certainly an explanation of it. One is that he and other political [illegible] held twenty or thirty years ago the very opinions about some of the leading Irish grievances which they hold now, and yet in that long interval they did nothing and attempted nothing.—The Nation.

CRIME.—The Cincinnati Gazette has a dispatch saying that the murderous Ku Klux Klan left documents in Mr. Patrick Henry's house, near Waverley, Tennessee, a few days ago, warning him to quit the country. He paid no attention to it, but kept on with his work. Subsequently a large company of rebels, disguised and armed, dragged him out of his house at about midnight, carried him to a creek about three miles distant, tied a rope around his neck, and dragged him up and down the creek, pulling out his hair and beard, kicked and whipped him, and left him lying unconscious in the woods. He was found the following evening by his wife. Mr. Henry is well known in Nashville as a lover of the Union. The Ku Klux visited the house of George Bryant, colored, eight miles from Nashville, and demanded admission. Not having any faith in their ghostly professions, the colored man denied them admission, but leveled his gun on them, and then they made a precipitate retreat. He recognized in one of the scoundrels a neighbor named Warren, and has taken out a warrant for his arrest. The Vidette (Ku Klux organ) has published an extra, warning Union men and negroes not to leave their homes until after the election.

A LEATHER WEDDING.—As "there is nothing like leather," there can, of course, be nothing like a "leather wedding." The leather wedding is a Washoe patent. It takes place the first day after either husband or wife begins thinking of obtaining a divorce. Leather spectacles are worn on the occasion, through which the principal parties view each other's virtues, and all concerned must be leatherheads, with hearts and consciences of leather.

Memorabilia.

In 1832, after the attempt of South Carolina to dissolve the Union had been put down General Jackson said that the tariff was only the pretext for that rebellion and disunion and a Southern Confederacy the real object "The next pretext," said he, "will be the negro or slavery question" Benton in his Thirty Years' View expresses the [illegible] Douglas in his speech in Chicago at the commencement of the rebellion said "the election of Mr. Lincoln was a mere pretext The present movement was the result of an enormous conspiracy formed by the leaders of the Southern Confederacy" Senator Yulee of Florida, in January, 1861, wrote a letter to the Secession Convention of his State expressing the opinion that the Southern Senators ought to remain at Washington until the 4th of March, because if they should leave, "force, loan and volunteer bills might be passed which would put Mr Lincoln in an immediate condition for hostilities By remaining in our places," said he, 'we can disable the Republicans from effecting any legislation which will strengthen the hands of the incoming Administration" Keitt of South Carolina, when speaking in Charleston in November, 1860, in favor of the secession of that State, said "Let me tell you there are a million of Democrats in the North, who, when the Black Republicans attempt to march upon the South, will be found a wall of fire in front." That the South counted confidently on the defection of large numbers of Northern Democrats is certain. Letters written by M F. Maury were found at Fredericksburg, Virginia, during the rebellion, in which the hope was confidently expressed that some of the Northern and Northwestern States could be seduced [illegible]. Ex-Gov Price of New Jersey in 1861, in answer to the question what New Jersey would do, said "she would go with the South [illegible] every wise, prudential and patriotic reason" The "Democratic" party of the North, on which the South so strongly relied, would have been glad at any time "to cast their lot with the South," as some of their leaders expressed it, and unite on the basis of the rebel Constitution, making slavery universal and perpetual The evidence is overwhelming that the conspiracy of the South was long meditated, but that there would never have been any attempt to carry it into execution had not the co-operation of Northern Democrats been anticipated and relied on. We mention a few of these little matters of history to refresh the memory of Rev. Joseph Smith and some others who, in charging the Republicans with bringing on the war, seem to have forgotten what their own party did a few years ago.

Fruits of Reconstruction

It is positively known that four of the [illegible] States have voted to reorganize under the reconstruction acts and to resume their relations with the Government of the Union Arkansas, Louisiana, South Carolina and Georgia have adopted new Constitutions in conformity with the requirements of Congress, and it can hardly be doubted that North Carolina has spoken in the same way. The action of Georgia is especially significant. A tremendous effort was made by the Rebels and Copperheads to defeat the new Constitution, and the Copperhead press of the North has been jubilant for a fortnight over the supposed result. But the dispatches at last tell a different story The friends of Congressional reconstruction have carried everything, Constitution, Governor and Legislature. There is one point which is particularly noticeable. The dispatches state that in Georgia "over 44,000 whites voted the Republican ticket." This is within 4,000 of half the registered white vote of the State. With so large a number of whites voting the Radical ticket and pronouncing for reconstruction under the laws of Congress, does it, we ask, look as if "purely negro governments" were being established in the South? The whites have a majority in Georgia, and could, by combination have defeated the Constitution, but half of them preferred to vote for reorganization under the plan which Congress proposed In Arkansas also, the whites outnumber the blacks at the rate of two to one, yet the Constitution is carried, showing that a very large number of whites must have voted for it. The same is true in the case of North Carolina, if, as there is every reason to believe, the Constitution has been successful in that State. The Rebels succeeded, by frauds, intimidation and violence, in defeating reconstruction in Alabama, but this has been their only success. The other [illegible] States are falling into their old places in the Union. Reconstruction on the plan laid down by Congress is rapidly marching to a speedy triumph. It cannot now be defeated by the combined efforts of Andrew Johnson, his pardoned rebel followers and the Northern Copperheads Before the close of summer, most, if not all the States lately in rebellion will be represented in Congress, and the Union will be restored with loyalty, not rebellion, in ascendancy

Portions of Stanbery's oration in behalf of Johnson are about as ludicrous as the flatteries and platitudes of the President's newspaper organ at Washington The peroration in which the man praises the master's fidelity (!) and does homage to his greatness is a piece of composition which it would be difficult for any court favorite to surpass. To prove his master's unexampled consistency and fidelity, why didn't Stanbery quote from some of Johnson's pronunciamentos which were delivered three years ago A rehearsal of the promises he made then would have been so pat and effective in Stanbery's speech! "Faithful among the faithless" is the term which these declaimers delight to use when speaking of Andrew Johnson We do not forget that he denounced treason in the Senate, and by his professions led the people to trust him. But his subsequent course shows him to be more faithless than the most faithless of those whom he then denounced The contrast between what he promised and what he has performed makes his treachery "gross as a mountain." After Arnold betrayed his country it would not have been in good taste for his defenders to plead his former professions and services to prove his fidelity, nor is a similar proceeding in behalf of Johnson a very conclusive defense

A short time ago a meeting was called in New York City to aid the College which is presided over by Mr. Robert E. Lee of Virginia The meeting was an entire failure New York has fifty thousand Democratic majority but the unterrified there would sooner burn asylums for colored orphans than help any body build a college.

The Grounds of Impeachment

According to the English historian Hume the power of impeachment was first assumed by the British Commons in the reign of Edward III in the fourteenth century Some of that monarch's ministers were impeached and convicted The grounds of procedure are not stated During the following reign that of Richard II the Earl of Suffolk was impeached his trial furnishing the second precedent in English history Other instances followed none of which were founded on statutory crimes In the origin of impeachment and its practice in England whence it was borrowed by the United States the parties impeached have rarely or never been charged with any crime forbidden by statutory law In the great trial of Hastings it was not alleged that any statute had been directly violated but the articles were preferred against the accused for abuses of power which no statute could have anticipated Judge Story states that in the few cases of impeachment which have hitherto been tried in the United States no one of the charges has rested upon any statutory misdemeanors In the Federalist, Hamilton, in speaking of the Senate as a Court for the trial of impeachments says "The subjects of its jurisdiction are those offences which proceed from the misconduct of public men or in other words from the abuse or violation of some public trust They are of a nature which may with peculiar propriety be denominated political as they relate chiefly to injuries done to the society itself" A learned writer has shown that in all the State Constitutions formed prior to that of the United States, the impeachable offenses which they contemplate are of 'a nature which may, with peculiar propriety be denominated political' In none of them are the subjects of impeachment mere statutory offences These State Constitutions are valuable as authentic evidences of the public sense of the country at the period when the Constitution of the United States was formed The fact, then being that neither in England nor in this country has it ever been the theory or practice that charges of impeachment should 'rest on statutory misdemeanors' the arguments of the President's counsel to the contrary are nothing but the special pleadings of lawyers who are trying to make the best possible case for their client The argument that the commission of a statutory crime or misdemeanor is necessary to convict is not sustained by the authorities This discussion, though dwelt upon at such length by the President's counsel, would seem to be quite inconsequential in the present case, as the accused has clearly committed a 'statutory misdemeanor'"

"War of Races"—How Caused

England has long been experiencing the inconvenience and bitterness which necessarily attend the holding of one part of the population of a country in a condition of inferiority, as to rights and privileges, to the other part This discrimination is justified or excused partly by assumed difference of race, and partly by diversities of religious faith On this account the English hold the Irish to be inferior, and refuse them, in many respects equality under the laws. For a long time the British Government has been agitated by the question of "reform" in regard to Ireland, and now a ministerial crisis growing out of this question, seems to be impending The English 'conservatives' appear to concede that the Irish are entitled to be well and humanely governed, (to borrow a well rounded expression from President Johnson's last message,) but they are averse to any measures which shall introduce the reforms which are demanded The so-called 'conservatives' or illiberal party in our country are laboring to introduce in the Southern States a condition of affairs analagous to that which has long prevailed in Ireland, but with disabilities multiplied and aggravated They base this discrimination ostensibly on color, but, in reality, on the recent servile status of nearly half the inhabitants These they propose to deny all privileges, except that of bearing the burdens of government This great zeal in "well and humanely governing" is of a piece with England's government of Ireland. It promises fairly enough, but it results in a constant and sore irritation of those who are kept under disabilities Equality of rights is peace, any other course necessarily produces discontent and turbulence, and when severities are added to repress the dissatisfaction the result is fresh exacerbations and steadily increasing troubles When people are denied rights in a Government which they are compelled to obey, they have nothing to expect but a despotism and assuredly they will get nothing else whatever they may look for The way to keep up a "war of races" is to continue these unjust discriminations The only road to peace is to make all who are amenable to the law equals before the law

Oregon City Election

A LITTLE "REACTION" OCCURS WHICH SWAMPS THE "DEMOCRACY"

Last evening we received the following dispatch

OREGON CITY May 4th

Calchas" clique exterminated in Oregon City Have just returned from the funeral Majority for Barclay Union candidate for Mayor 38 Democratic majority last year 16. Average majority on the entire Union ticket to-day, 20

D C IRELAND
W P BURNS

We congratulate our friends at Oregon City upon their unprecedented victory It is the "first gun" of the campaign and indicates an overwhelming Union majority in Clackamas county in June Last year the Democrats were wonderfully elated with their success in Oregon City, this year that majority is not only wiped out, but it has been more than doubled on the Union side The issue at Oregon City was a straight contest between the two political parties How does the Portland Copperhead organ which crowed so lustily about the result in Oregon City last year like the present "reaction"? Perhaps "Calchas" will write some letters to the organ explaining the phenomenon The victory at Oregon City, coming at this time is very important, and we thank our friends there for the work they have done and the success they have achieved

The Pendleton doctrine of redeeming the National obligations in greenbacks is just this They would set the printing presses at work—hundreds of them would be necessary—striking off paper money, professedly legal tenders, which they would force upon the public creditors The obligations amount to two thousand millions of dollars, and the Pendleton Democratic idea is, to flood the country to that extent with greenbacks, which would be the most complete and speedy method possible of realizing the idea of 'Rags for the People," and worthless ones too

EAST PORTLAND UNION CLUB.—The East Portland Union Club will have a meeting to-morrow evening at 8 o'clock at which nominations will be made for precinct officers Mr S J McCormick will address the club on the political issues of the day All the Union voters of the precinct are invited to attend.

BY OVERLAND MAIL

[From the Chicago Tribune April 18.]

The widow of General Pleasant A Hackleman, who gave his life to his country at the battle of Corinth has been appointed Postmistress at Rushville, Indiana

There is a wise provision in General Meade's order for the suppression of the Kuklux Klan, imposing on the several counties or municipalities where they exist, the expense incident to maintaining posses, patrols and the like to aid in the suppressing the operations of these sons of darkness

Three brass cannon, captured by the Sixth Army Corps in battle are to be donated by Congress for the construction of a statue of the late Major General John Sedgwick, which will be placed as a monument to his memory now in course of erection by the Sixth Corps The committee in charge of this monument are Major Generals H G Wright Frank Wheaton George W Getty and Truman Seymour

The Cincinnati Commercial says that before leaving the Indian Commission to obey the sudden summons to Washington, General Sherman expressed his opinion that the best way to settle the Indian question is to protect the red skins by law and give them absolute and perpetual control of territorial reservations He thinks the Indians can be advanced to civilization prosperity and citizenship He favors the establishment of a Department of Indian Affairs General Sheridan who is now treating with the Indians of New Mexico and who has had much experience with many savage tribes considers them more sinned against than sinning He believes them capable of civilization and denounces Indian wars as unnecessary and dishonorable

Mr Stephen Pearl Andrews, of New York city claims to have discovered an entirely new science as exact and profound as logic or mathematics and even more far reaching and inclusive than either of them, or than any other science He affirms that there is in fact, only one science of the principles of which all the special sciences are merely particular modifications or instances Heretofore, he says, there has not been a single universal principle known in positive science and consequently science is yet in the chaotic or fragmentary stage of its developments The new science is to supply this defect, and to base all the known sciences, upon an apriori knowledge of exact scientific laws of universal application whether in the department of matter or that of mind Upon this new science he bestows the name of 'Universality' or the science of the Universe As a branch of it, he also announces the discovery, and to a great extent the elaboration of a new scientific universal language Mr Andrews will shortly publish a book explaining his discoveries

The Pittsburg Gazette says that an ardent admirer of Secretary Stanton recently interrogated him as to his willingness to become Mr Buckalew's successor in the Senate of the United States He responded peremptorily 'What I want—what I must have—is rest, quiet, a chance to live with my wife and family in peace I appreciate the kind feeling you express, but there is no office I would take" Doubtless, his incessant labors in the War Department make him long for repose and yet we are not certain but his sense of public duty would, in the end constrain him to accept the place in case it should be tendered to him

The Pittsburg Gazette takes the following view of the contest for the Vice Presidency "Until within the last few days the chances for the Republican Vice Presidential nomination seemed to divide about equally between Wade and Colfax Now, however, Colfax seems to be gaining A majority of the Republican members of Congress are certainly for him, and the States beyond the Ohio are pretty sure to demand him by a unanimous voice'

The following Ohio cities show Union gain over last year, in their elections held on Tuesday last

Cleveland—Union majority 500 to 700, a gain of over 1,000 on last spring's election, and of 150 on last fall
Dayton—Average Union majority, 150, a Union gain of 160.
Fremont—Union majority, 23, a gain of 83
Coshocton—Democratic majority, 22, a Union gain of 34
Troy—Union majority, 283, a gain of 132
Cincinnati—Union gain of 50
Steubenville—A gain of 153
Bellefontaine—Majority 165, gain 55.
Newark—Democratic majority on Mayor, 31, Union gain 165 Brooke, Independent Republican, elected Marshal by 122 majority
Norwalk—Union gain 50 over last spring
Massillon—Gain 59
Crestline—Democratic majority, 176, gain, 24
Wooster—Union gain, 38
Ottawa—Union Mayor elected, gain 25.
Columbus—Union gain, 200

The Louisville Courier and Journal are making themselves very merry over what they are pleased to call a "brilliant Democratic victory" in that city on Saturday last. In the largest vote ever polled, the Democratic majorities range from 233 to 2 200 Last fall their majority was over 5,000 Another such victory will place the majority on the other side

LINE OF LEVELS FOR THE EAST SIDE RAILROAD.—The Record of yesterday has the following concerning the altitudes of various points along the proposed route of the Oregon Central Railroad—East side.
Mr. C. W. Burrage Civil Engineer who has been engaged for some weeks past running the levels between Oregon City and Eugene as a preliminary survey for the Oregon Central Railroad Company, came down the river by last Saturday, and furnishes us with some very interesting information of the altitude of various points along the line. Taking the level of the water in the Basin at Oregon City at zero, all the figures given are with reference to that starting point, the course pursued being the line of stage road, or near that line:

Level of Baker's Prairie above Oregon City	135 feet
Level of Molalla Prairie	137
Level of Barlow's Prairie	49½
Surface Pudding river	71
The shop at Aurora	77
[illegible] Prairie at Waconda	138
[illegible] of French Prairie	137
Surface of Lake Labish	97
[illegible] corner of Commercial and State streets,	113
[illegible] average of Liberty street, Salem	117
Surface of water at wharf, Salem	75
Elevation thirteen miles from Salem, up the Mill Creek Prairie, near Hunsaker's	288
At Jefferson, on the bank, by the mill	171
[illegible]	167
Surface Santiam at Jefferson	160
[illegible] between Jefferson and Albany, at E. T. Fisher's place	200
Albany, Parrish's store	191½
Surface of river at Albany	129
Surface [illegible] above Albany	136
[illegible] point between Albany and Corvallis	180
[illegible] low ground near Corvallis	160
[illegible] stage road passes near Muddy, Linn county	250
The rise is gradual thereafter until at surface of river at Eugene	356
Water table, Bristow's store, Eugene	373

By [illegible] of the above table it will be seen that [illegible] will exist in getting over the low ground between the north bank of the Molalla and the south bank of Pudding river, which is at least eighty feet lower than the lands north and south of it. This does not involve any serious engineering difficulty, and it is only remarked that the route, with so few exceptions, is easy and practicable. Mr. Burrage considers his preliminary survey [illegible] satisfactory, and it places beyond doubt the [illegible] of the construction of the road.

[illegible] COURT—MARQUAM JUDGE.—The May Term of [illegible] Court [illegible] yesterday, with the following [illegible] on the docket. W. W. Chapman vs Reuben [illegible]. O. P. Ferry, executor, and Francetta Humiston, [illegible] vs. J. P. Olds & Jordon, D. Metzger vs. John [illegible] White. H. Failing vs Alvin Flanders; Hurgren & [illegible] vs. S. E. Briggs; H. Hinshelmer vs D. Jacobi, Crawford & Co. vs J. T. Grow.
The following matters were on file for the consideration of the County Commissioners.

Petition of J. Terwilliger and others for the vacating of [illegible] road from Fulton House to Portland.
Petition for re-location of county road, between Love's ferry and Switzler's place.

[illegible] of sundry persons against the county.
The following were the proceedings of the court yesterday:
Application for the appointment of a guardian for Theodore White, an insane person; citation issued for his [illegible]. O. P. Mason for petitioner.
[illegible] of A. L. Stiles [illegible], O. S. Stiles, administrator; on petition of creditors, citation to administrator to show cause why petitioner's claim had not been paid and why he has not made final settlement of his accounts. [illegible] for petitioners.
Estate of C. N. Humiston, Ferry and Humiston ex'rs, on petition of C. M. Carter, citation to executors to show cause why an order of the court for the sale of real estate has not been complied with. Mason for petitioner.
In the matter of the guardianship of Daniel S. Southworth's heirs; petition filed for an order to creditors to [illegible] and show cause why certain real estate should not [illegible]
[illegible] for [illegible] appointment of guardian of Wm Blackstone's heirs; Wm. Blackstone cited to appear at [illegible] P. M., Tuesday, 5th, and show cause why [illegible] should not be appointed.
[illegible] of Dr. Elwert, Mrs. D. Elwert administratrix, [illegible] made and administratrix discharged.
[illegible] vs D. Jacobi, set for trial Tuesday, 5th, [illegible] A. M., Mitchell, Dolph & Smith for plaintiff, [illegible] for defendant.

[illegible] OF HORSES.—In the Mountaineer of Saturday [illegible] the following notice of a couple of hombres who [illegible] at this city last Saturday evening and left again [illegible] For the present, at the request of [illegible] here, we refrain from giving publicity to what [illegible] of their movements, further than to say, it is [illegible] and what road they took and where they designed going, and that they will doubtless be nabbed within a few [illegible]. The Mountaineer says: "Thomas Howard, Sheriff of Grant county, called at our office and gave us some [illegible] information in relation to these individuals whose [illegible] are M. P. Pillsberry and W. H. Spawl. It appears that they have been carrying on mining operations to a large extent, employing a number of men, etc., and [illegible] by getting in debt to the amount of over four thousand [illegible]. Last week they cleaned up the entire [illegible] work and cleared out with the dust for parts unknown. After a number of days of fruitless search their [illegible] were at last found coming towards the Dalles [illegible] Howard started in pursuit and reached here in two days from Canyon City, a distance of one hundred [illegible] miles. He [illegible] of the men at Gilliam's, who [illegible] there some five hours before him, and con[illegible] on to the Dalles to procure the assistance of an officer [illegible] them, as he was beyond his jurisdiction [illegible] had no authority. Before the officer arrived at Gilliam's they had departed and the last seen of [illegible] was on the opposite side of the river taking up the side of a steep mountain."

MINT AT THE DALLES.—The Mountaineer of [illegible] contains the following dispatch from Senator [illegible], dated Washington City, April 29th, and received [illegible] by Mr. D. M. French, last Thursday evening.
[illegible] H. A. Hogue or D. M. French, Dalles. Hogue appointed [illegible] and French Disbursing Agent for [illegible]
[illegible] with this matter, the Mountaineer says [illegible] ago letters were received by prominent citizens [illegible] from Williams and Corbett to the effect, that the united delegation from Oregon in Congress [illegible] in inducing the Secretary to expend the [illegible] long since made by Congress, for the erection of a Mint at the Dalles, and that as soon as [illegible] on which to erect the same was sent on [illegible] by the Department, arrangements would be made to proceed at once with the work. This has [illegible] been done, and accordingly the Superintendent whose duty it is to superintend the erection of the building and a Disbursing Agent whose duty it is to pay out the funds therefor, have been appointed and we think everybody will join with us in saying that two more suitable and qualified business men could not have been appointed for the duties which will be assigned them than [illegible] and D. M. French. As soon as the Supervising Architect at Washington shall forward to Mr. [illegible] the plans and [illegible] for the building, the work will be commenced."

[illegible] RAILROAD.—From a gentleman who visited [illegible] on the West Side Road yesterday, we learn that [illegible] work is being pushed with commendable vigor. Forty-five men were at work, and the working force being [illegible] as good men offer. [illegible] at Hart [illegible] another "Hotel" about a mile beyond the "Shanty," at which another gang of forty or fifty will be quartered. The grading is heavier than [illegible] the east side road, and of course does not make so [illegible], but as soon as the graders [illegible] the top of the [illegible] will then have level ground and will string out [illegible] very rapidly. While there, our informant saw [illegible] of the "American Exchange," taking a cup of [illegible] visiting the "Railroad Hotel," which he [illegible] well arranged, with all the "modern improvements." We are glad to learn that most of the spare labor [illegible] Portland are employed on one road or the [illegible]. The West side company are now receiving most [illegible] hands from points up the valley.

[illegible] DEAD OF OREGON CITY.—The following are the [illegible] of the gentlemen who were buried at Oregon City, [illegible] under an average Union majority of twenty-[illegible]:
[illegible] For Mayor, J. R. Ralston; for [illegible] F. Canfield; for Councilmen, George La[illegible], Logus, David Smith, Henry Humbel, [illegible] Wm. Singer, George Clark; for Assessor and [illegible] L. Kelly; for Treasurer, John Fleming; [illegible] Attorney, S. D. Richardson; for Marshal, Geo [illegible] Street Commissioner, Luke Comer; for [illegible] Superintendent, H. W. Ross.
[illegible] had but a brief illness died unshrived and [illegible] without mourners. "Calchas" will write a [illegible] epitaph; but otherwise, the "dear departed" [illegible] troubled by anything beyond such annoy[illegible] they may meet on the other side of Jordan.

[illegible] Mr. R. R. Thompson and wife, who have [illegible] several months absent, on an extended tour of [illegible] the Sandwich Islands, reached home yesterday [illegible] overland from Sacramento. They return in excellent [illegible] and delighted to be once more at home. [illegible] they met Mr. Leopold Wolff who has been [illegible] the Islands for health. Though not [illegible] from his illness, he was convalescent and [illegible] He was about to enter upon the practice of law at Honolulu. Mr. Thompson also saw An[illegible], formerly of this city, who has been for some time engaged in practicing law at Honolulu. When Mr. Thompson left, Lawrence was expecting an appointment from the Hawaiian Government. Should he fail in that, he would leave and return to the Eastern States [illegible] will find hosts of friends to warmly welcome [illegible].

[illegible] COURT DEADY, JUDGE.—The U. S. District [illegible] its spring term yesterday morning. [illegible] E. Wilcox, Clerk, [illegible] and the jurymen summoned [illegible] jury (names published yesterday morning) [illegible] and sworn.
[illegible], a petit juryman, was excused from attendance.
The case of the United States vs A. S. Mercer, et al, [illegible] from last term, was called, and set for trial at 10 o'clock A. M. to-day.
The petition of Abel D. Heiman, to be declared a bankrupt, [illegible] before filed in this court, was by order referred to the Register, W. Lair Hill.

FIRE ALARM.—A very sickly alarm of fire occurred about seven o'clock last evening. Two of the bells were struck, but they rang out with such distempered sounds that most people were in doubt whether, after all, it was an alarm or a practical joke. The firemen, however, who never need a kick after a hint, turned out in usual force and rushed away somewhere up town, but soon returned with the information that "it was a false alarm."

FOREST GROVE EXPRESS.—Jamison's Express will hereafter run regularly between this city and Forest Grove, and every trip is expected to come to time. Will leave Portland on Tuesdays and Saturdays at 7 o'clock A. M., precisely, and return on Mondays and Fridays, connecting with Wells Fargo & Co's Express. In all matters of business Jamison will be found accommodating and reliable.

THANKS.—The friends of the Baptist Sabbath School desire to return their thanks to Mr. Shanahan for the loan of a piano at the Sabbath School Exhibition on the evening of May 1st, to the friends who assisted in preparing the entertainment, and to the public for its generous support.
The receipts amounted to $200.

FRONT STREET REPAIRS.—The contractors for the repairs of Front street, began work yesterday morning near Morrison. The roof of an old tunnel under the street had settled and [illegible] of the pavement down below the grade. The [illegible] and the proper filling performed. The [illegible] thus far, presents no indications of decay or failure in any way.

NORTHERN PACIFIC RAILROAD EXPLORATION.—Mr. Hud[illegible] of Major Tilton's corps of railroad surveyors yesterday received intelligence from the East that Edwin F. Johnson, Chief Engineer of the Northern Pacific Railroad and James Tilton Chief Engineer of the Pacific Division left New York on the 15th of April to make an exploration of the route across the continent.

ELECTION AT VANCOUVER.—The following dispatch was received from Vancouver last evening:
"At the annual meeting for election of the Vancouver Fire Department held here to-day the following gentlemen were elected: Chief Engineer, George T. Hodges, 1st Assistant Engineer, J. W. Nichols, 2d Assistant Engineer H. B. Wood."

WOOL—NEW YORK QUOTATIONS.—The San Francisco Bulletin of April 20th, has the following: Private telegrams from a leading wool house in New York advise their correspondents in San Francisco not to pay over 15 @17c for best grades of spring clip California wool. INTERESTING TO TAXPAYERS.—An advertisement in our advertising columns, of delinquent tax debtors, will prove, no doubt, an "ower true tale" of thrilling interest to the parties concerned. The story is by Stitzel, Sheriff, author of several others, much in the same vein.

SALMON FROM VANCOUVER.—The steamer Jennie Troup brought over yesterday morning, a lot of fresh salmon of very fine size and appearance, from the new fishery at Love's Mill just below town. Mr. Troup informs us that the fishery is succeeding admirably.

HOSTETTER'S
CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS!
A Pure and Powerful Tonic,
Corrective and Alterative, of wonderful efficacy in Diseases of the STOMACH, LIVER AND BOWELS.
PROTECTIVE PROPERTIES.
Prevents Fever and Ague and Billious Remittent Fevers; Fortifies the System against Miasma and the evil effects of unwholesome water. Invigorates the organs of digestion and the bowels.
Steadies the Nerves and tends to Prolong Life.
REMEDIAL PROPERTIES.
Cures Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Sick and Nervous Headache, General Debility, Nervousness, Depression of Spirits, Constipation, Colic, Intermittent Fevers, Sea Sickness, Cramps and Spasms, and all complaints of either sex arising from Bodily Weakness, whether inherent in the system or PRODUCED BY SPECIAL CAUSES.
NOTHING THAT IS NOT WHOLESOME, GENIAL, and restorative in its nature, enters into the composition of HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS. This popular preparation contains no mineral of any kind; no deadly botanical element, no fiery excitant, but is a combination of the extracts of rare balsamic herbs and plants, with the purest and mildest of all diffusive stimulants.
The weak stomach is rapidly invigorated, and the appetite restored by this Tonic, and hence it works wonders in cases of Dyspepsia, and in less confirmed forms of Indigestion. Acting as a gentle and painless aperient, as well as upon the liver, it also invariably relieves the Constipation superinduced by irregular action of the digestive and secretive organs.
Persons of feeble habit, liable to Nervous Attacks, Lowness of Spirits, and Fits of Languor, find prompt and permanent relief from the Bitters. The testimony on this point is conclusive, and from both sexes.
As a Genuine Tonic, HOSTETTER'S BITTERS produce effects which must be experienced or witnessed before they can be fully appreciated. In cases of Constitutional Weakness, Premature Decay, and Debility and Decrepitude arising from old age it exercises the electric influence. In the convalescent stages of all diseases it operates as a delightful invigorant. When the powers of nature are relaxed, it operates to re-enforce and re-establish them.
Last, but not least, it is the only safe stimulant, being manufactured from sound and innocuous materials, and entirely free from the acrid elements present more or less in all the ordinary tonics and stomachics of the day.
SOLD EVERYWHERE.

G. VENARD,
CHARTRES COFFEE!
Manufactory Established in June, 1851.
STEAM POWER, NOS 625 AND 621 FRONT ST.
HAS CONSTANTLY ON HAND GROUND AND ROASTED COFFEE, GREEN COFFEE of the best qualities. CREAM OF TARTAR and SPICES of all sorts.
The undersigned who has always enjoyed public confidence for the excellent quality of his Coffee, neglects nothing to justify the good name acquired by his productions, the sale of which daily increases. The acknowledged superiority of his merchandise, which commands here, and in the markets of the interior, a relatively higher price, excites the cupidity of some manufacturers, and every day he sees increasing the number of those who, by counterfeit or imitation of his mark, seek to deceive the public, palming upon them their inferior products for the genuine G. VENARD CHARTRES COFFEE. This fraud can deceive nobody after a trial, but only adds to the favorable opinion of the consumers, the very flattering though unwilling testimony of the counterfeiters. Nevertheless, buyers should be forewarned, and placed on their guard against this practice.
BEWARE OF COUNTERFEITS.

"Found Dead in the Street."

The labor is over and done;
The sun has gone down in the west;
The birds are asleep every one,
And the world has gone to its rest,
Sleepers on beds of down,
'Neath cover of silk and gold,
Soft, as on roses new blown,
Slept the great monarch of old
Sleepers on mother's breast,
Sleepers happy and warm,
Cosy as birds in their nest
With never a thought of harm
Sleepers in garrets high,
'Neath coverlet ragged and old,
And one little sleeper all under the sky,
Out in the night and cold
Alone in the wide, wide world,
Christless, motherless he;
Begging or stealing to live, and whirled
Like waif on an angry sea

The daisy looks up from the grass,
Fresh from the fingers of Night,
To w[illegible] me the birds as they pass,
And drink in fresh rivers of light,
Sl[illegible] on mother's breast,
Waken to Summer and mirth;
But one little sleeper has gone to rest,
Never to waken on earth
Dead—found dead in the street,
All forsaken and forlorn,
Damp from head to the feet,
With the dews of the sweet May morn
Dead—for the want of a crust!
D[illegible] in the cold night air!
D[illegible] and under the dust,
Without ever a word of prayer;
In the heart of the wealthiest city
In this most Christian land;
Without ever a word of pity,
Or the touch of a kindly hand!

Talk with a Democratic Member of Congress.

[illegible] Alfred Tow[illegible]d writes as follows to the Cleveland Leader:

Since the New Hampshire election the vic[illegible] notes of the Democracy have been pitched upon a lower key I seldom see a [illegible] who has a doubt that Grant will be elected. I seldom see a democrat, on the [illegible], without a doubt that his party can elect anybody. Very often the Democratic way of putting it is this: "The country is [illegible]; there's no liberty here; visionaries control [illegible]; the people are as mad as their [illegible]; we'll have a monarchy within 4 years." That means that he believes the Democracy [illegible] no hope of the Presidential contest.

I said to a leading Democratic Congressman yesterday:

"Who will be your candidate, anyway?"

"Well," he said, "Johnson, I suppose, if he is not [illegible] and made ineligible."

"But the World and other of your party newspapers refuse to accept him."

"The World," he said, "has no influence with the Democratic party. It will never ex[illegible] till the Convention has nominated, and then it will support any nominee—Pendleton or anybody. All these papers are on the fence, afraid to decide in any man's favor for fear of losing the spoils if he be unsuccessful. The whole hope of the Democracy is in the finding some sagacious manager, like Dean Richmond, who can read the public mind and choose a man and platform strong and without a fault."

"Is there anybody like the Dean above ground now?"

"Nobody! That party of fellows that made the National Committee had just sagacity enough the other day to decide for nobody, because, in fact, they had nobody to decide for. They fixed New York for the place of the Convention, hoping for something to turn up."

"Does New York shelve Pendleton?"

"[illegible] Not that the party would not take him up, [illegible] if we could win with Pendleton's platform. We couldn't collect ten [illegible] dollars in America, out of Ohio, to [illegible] with, on his repudiation principle."

"What of Seymour?"

"Seymour is the best man we have, in mind, [illegible] and force. But he put his foot in the New York riots. If he could canvass the country in his strong, manly way, he could gain us great strength. But then he broke down [illegible] canvass even of Douglas."

"I [illegible] the New York Sun suggests [illegible]"

"[illegible] but [illegible] The Sun only re[illegible] body of [illegible] men [illegible] who will have him [illegible] He wouldn't [illegible] control him [illegible] Of course, we could [illegible] of our party to support [illegible] a Republican. We [illegible] a vote for Chase as for Pendleton [illegible] isn't enough. We [illegible] a man who will divide the Republicans [illegible]"

"And who will that be?"

"Well, Judge Davis, of the Supreme Court, Mr. [illegible]'s executor, is understood to be [illegible] We can use him as if he was the [illegible] of Lincoln, opposing extreme radicalism. We have Lincoln already on record as [illegible] to Ben. Wade. By George! we'll [illegible] on our lanterns, and [illegible]"

"Won't this be somewhat inconsistent as a [illegible]"

"[illegible]" said my informant; "this time is all the time for us. But for the election last fall we shouldn't have a cog of ma[illegible] with. Our party newspapers, [illegible] nearly extinct for [illegible] When rebels like [illegible] Thompson were going [illegible] could have been our status [illegible] to us now is the Supreme C[illegible] the [illegible] of the public mind" [illegible] frank[illegible] that he considered [illegible], because, some years ago, I wrote a [illegible] Democratic paper. I might have told him, indeed, that all the editors of [illegible] are Republicans.

How the [illegible] Can Help Itself [illegible].—Had our people turned a deaf ear to Johnson's invocations to [illegible] their States after the war; had they gone to raising bread and meat instead of cotton, wherewith to buy these things, had [illegible] any idea of "[illegible] ganizing labor," and let the [illegible] severely alone, unless if, urged to act, they had insisted upon electing him to office, and [illegible] sending him to Congress, they would now have been peculiarly independent, and far more so politically than they can [illegible] for a time to come.

[illegible] they can do now is to go to work to give internal wealth to their homesteads, making their lands fruitful and green, gathering [illegible] the best of [illegible], not including the ne[illegible] vote down, if they [illegible] to them from abroad; and if they cannot vote for and elect engineers of [illegible] and to [illegible] their souls [illegible] that no possible system of government can be so injurious as a neglect of work and a [illegible] on [illegible], without taking hold of the wheel.

[illegible] Republican, and True W. Jones, [illegible], of Portsmouth, N. H., made a bet by which the latter, if Harriman was elected, was to carry a bag of meal, weighing 100 pounds, [illegible] on his back, from Noble's Island bridge to Creek bridge, without resting—distance one [illegible]. Mr. Jones performed the feat this [illegible] carrying a banner, inscribed, "This bag is but a slight representation of the burden of taxation that weigh heavily upon the laboring classes of the country." A delegation of Republicans followed, with a war flag and banner, with the following inscriptions: "What Caused Taxation?" Answer—"The War." "Who Caused the War?" Answer—"The Democratic Party." A Republican named Horton then shouldered the meal and carried it back, on a wager, winning the meal and $10. The whole affair created quite a sensation.

G. A. R.—A few days ago an old man belonging to the Grand Army of the Republic was taken to the station house as indigent and unable to support himself. The officers of the "Post" hearing it, took him out and gave him food, clothing and employment. Will our Democratic neighbors take note of the operations of this "secret political society."—Newark Gazette.

H. W. SHIPLEY & CO.,
MANUFACTURERS OF
SHIPLEY'S PATENT PACIFIC
TURBINE WATER WHEEL!

OF WHICH THE ABOVE IS AN ILLUSTRATION, has FOUR SETS OF BUCKETS, AND USES THREE-FOURTHS OF THE WATER TWICE.

The old high-priced, unequalled and unrivalled wheel has been PLAYED OUT by a fair working trial made by Mr H. Kelly, at his saw mill, and the public can see what he says as to the capacity of the two wheels in the following testimonial over his own signature

MR H W SHIPLEY—Sir: In reply to your inquiry as to how I like you Pacific Turbine Wheel, I have to say that I have used one over-shot and three Leffel wheels —10, 13 and 15 inch diameters. When I substituted your 15 inch wheel for the 14-inch Leffel wheel, though unfinished it worked the machinery like a top, using 52 ft of water per minute more than the 14 inch Leffell. At your request I subsequently took your wheel out that it might be finished, and then I put in a 15 inch Leffel; but it gave no better power than yours while it used 52 cubic feet more water, per minute. After some months, I replaced your wheel and am still using it with the most satisfactory results. I have subjected it to some severe tests. For instance while running the circular saw in a log which squared 15 inches, I added the planer with a 9 inch knife, cutting from one-eighth to one-fourth of an inch depth, without in the least slacking the speed. After thorough tests of both wheels, I am satisfied that your wheel with gate one-eighth of an inch open gives as much power as the Leffell with gate one-third open. At half gate, your wheel gives double the power of the Leffel at half gate. At full gate, the power of yours exceeds that of the Leffel, by from ten to twelve per cent. At quarter gate, the Leffel holds no comparison with yours at quarter gate.

N. B. Mr. Shipley was not present at either of the trials of his wheel, he being sick at the first, and absent from the State, at the second trial.

Medical.

TO THE UNFORTUNATE.
NEW REMEDIES, NEW REMEDIES
Dr. Gibbon's Dispensary,

616 KEARNEY STREET, NEAR COMMERCIAL, San Francisco. Established in 1854, for the treatment of Sexual and Seminal Diseases, such as Gonorrhea, Gleet, Stricture, Syphilis in all its forms, Seminal Weakness, Impotency, etc. Skin Diseases (of years standing) and Ulcerated Legs [illegible]fully treated

Horrible Diseases.

How many thousands of persons, both male and female, are there who are suffering out a miserable existence from the effects of secret indulgences, or from virus absorbed into the system. Look at their pallid, emaciated and disfigured faces and their broken-down constitutions, disqualifying them for the happiness of marriage or the enjoyment of life. In this horrid situation thousands suffer until death closes the scene. Let parents, guardians, friends, attend to those who are suffering with any of these horrible life-destroying maladies—see that they are cared for and cured before it be too late. Send them immediately to Doctor Gibbon, a physician who has made private disease his especial study for years and who is certain to cure the most inveterate cases without mercury or any injurious drugs. It is important to those who are afflicted, or to those who are interested in the welfare of their friends, to be careful of the many pretended doctors who infest all cities, publishing their skill in curing all diseases in a few days, imposing upon the public by using the names of eminent physicians from Europe and other places. Be therefore careful and make strict inquiry, or you may fall into the hands of those charlatans

Seminal Weakness.

Seminal Emissions, the consequence of self abuse. This solitary vice, or depraved sexual indulgence, is practised by the youth of both sexes to an almost unlimited extent producing, with unerring certainty, the following train of morbid symptoms, unless combatted by scientific medical measures, viz. Sallow countenance, dark spots under the eyes, pain in the head, ringing in the ears, noise like the rustling of leaves and rattling of chariots, uneasiness about the loins, weakness of the limbs, confused vision, blunted intellect, loss of confidence, diffidence in approaching strangers, a dislike to form new acquaintances, a disposition to shun society, loss of memory, hectic flushes; pimples and various eruptions about the face, furred tongue, fetid breath, coughs, consumption, night sweats, monomania and frequent insanity. If relief be not obtained should apply immediately, either in person or by letter, and have a cure effected by his new and scientific mode of treating this disease, which never fails of effecting a quick and radical cure. Dr G will give One Hundred Dollars to any person who will prove satisfactorily to him that he was cured of this complaint by either of the San Francisco quacks

MARRIED MEN,

Or those who contemplate marriage, who are suffering under any of these fearful maladies, should not forget the sacred responsibility resting upon them nor delay to obtain immediate relief.

DOCTOR GIBBON is responsible, and will give to each patient a written instrument, binding himself to effect a radical and permanent cure, or make no charge.

CURED AT HOME.

Persons at a distance may be CURED AT HOME, by addressing a letter to Dr. Gibbon, stating case, symptoms, length of time the disease has continued, and have medicines promptly forwarded, free from damage and curiosity, to any part of the country with full and plain directions for use, for Ten Dollars, sent in registered letter or through Wells, Fargo & Co.

Caution to the Unfortunate.

Beware of the San Francisco quacks and pretenders, who, with bogus sworn-to certificates, dupe the unwary. Some of the self styled doctors, whose names are to be found in the daily and weekly newspapers of San Francisco and other places are tradesmen, and became too lazy to work at their trades. Some are tinsmiths shoemakers, newspaper carriers, intelligence office keepers, etc. Look over the San Francisco Directory, and you will not find their Medical Institutes in it, but you will find their former occupations in it. Look at the Directory for 1862 and 1863. The only way to avoid imposition is to make enquiry—it will cost you nothing, and may save you many regrets; for, as advertising physicians, in eight cases out of ten, are bogus, there is no safety in trusting any of them until you know who and what they are. Dr. Gibbon does not deceive people by exhibiting bogus titles, certificates, pretended patient's letters, etc. Dr. Gibbon will satisfy persons who may call at his office of his ability to treat diseases that he proposes to cure.
